

Types of Decisions made by the Supreme Court

Match the appropriate picture to the appropriate word.

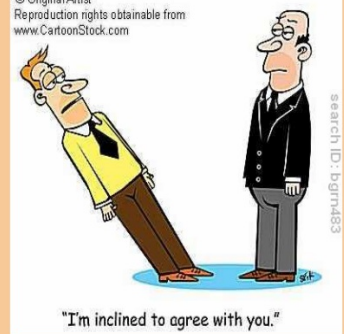

Concur

Majority

© Original Artist
Reproduction rights obtainable from www.CartoonStock.com

Dissent

Types of Decisions made by the Supreme Court:

Majority Opinion: the Court's decision and reasoning in a case

Concurring Opinion: a written explanation of views of one or more judges who agree with the Majority Opinion but wishes to make emphasis on a point not mentioned in the Majority Opinion

Dissenting Opinion: a written explanation of one or more judges who disagree (dissent) with the Majority Opinion